ST ANNS SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL, BALAGAON, KOKRAJHAR

St Ann's Senior Secondary School, is a Catholic educational institution belong to the "All India Educational and Medical Relief Society of St. Ann." This Society is managed by the Sisters of St. Ann of Providence with its head quarter in New Delhi. The Society has its branches in 11 Countries of the world including India. In India, the Society has around 65 Higher Secondary Schools, 5 Colleges and other Medical and Social Work Centers.

OUR PATRONESS: ST. ANN

Following the example of St. Ann and as the members of this Institute, are called to restore and enhance the image of God in the youth and reawaken in them the thirst for spirituality that they always carry in their hearts, even if this sometimes takes ambiguous and disconnected forms. To welcome and accompany the young, so that their desire for happiness may be realized, and they become what they are called to be according to their vocation. Our Founders entrusted our Institute to the care of Divine Providence, the heart of its identity. Our Founders wanted us to depend on God's Providence for all our needs and to become "instruments of Providence" to the poor and needy and to the protection of St. Ann, model of a mother and educator.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF ST ANNS SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL

The school was established in 2005 to serve the cause of higher education for the people of Bodoland in the district of Kokrajhar. St Anns Senior Secondary School is a unit of "All India Education and Medical Relief Society of St. Ann" is a registered society. The founder of this institute are a noble couple Marquis Carlo Tancredi and Marchioness Giulia of Barolo, who founded the institute in the year 1834 in Turin, Italy. They spent their life for the cause of educating the less wealthy and the marginalized whom they called 'little ones'. Their motto 'Inspe' means 'in hope' raised hope in every heart that reached their door step. Accordingly, St Anns Senior Secondary School, offers hope to those who are eager to build up themselves but cannot, due to lack of means, scope, and guidance.
